Hardis Group appoints Emmanuel Craipeau as Director of its consulting business "Business Consulting & IT Transformation"

Grenoble, December 1, 2015 - Hardis Group, a digital services company and software publisher, announces the appointment of Emmanuel Craipeau as Director of its project owner support consultancy, dedicated to assisting companies with their digital transformation.

Aged 43, Emmanuel Craipeau has over 20 years of strategy and management consulting experience and in recent years has specialized in the transformation of IS and IT departments. The new director will be based in Paris and will be responsible for accelerating the development of Hardis Group's "Business Consulting & IT Transformation" activities in its target markets, particularly in the areas of insurance, distribution and industry. He will oversee a team of 70 consultants to date, which is set to grow.

"Emmanuel has a solid experience in large consulting firms in the management of information systems and in digital transformation. We are counting on his experience to accelerate the development of our consulting activities," says Yvan Coutaz, Executive Vice President.

He joins Hardis Group after nearly 10 years at Capgemini Consulting, where he was Associate Executive Vice President in the Business and Technology Innovation practice. Before that, he worked on restructuring missions at Hemeria Management Consulting (acquired in 2008 by Oliver Wyman) and ran a small business in the automotive sector. Emmanuel Craipeau began his career in the business consulting teams at Bossard Consultants and graduated from the Hautes Etudes Commerciales school (HEC) in 94.

About Hardis Group

Hardis Group, a digital services company and software publisher, assists its customers in their move to digital and omnichannel. The company helps them transform their information systems, their supply chain and their customer relationships to create value and increase operational performance. With its dual historical positioning, Hardis Group has developed business expertise in the areas of banking, insurance and e-health, distribution (CPG and luxury goods), industry and energy, logistics and transport services. This expertise now allows it to provide its clients with global responses to their needs, in an agile approach characterized by co-construction, innovation and continuous improvement.

Since its creation in 1984, the company has built its growth on a pragmatic approach and values of efficiency and firm commitment both to its 2,500 clients and its 700 employees (25% of whom are also shareholders).
